NOBLES HAVE INNING WITH DRILL MANUEL

Mystic Shriners Learn Intricacies of March in Preparation for Trip.

The noise of marching men and the shrill cry of command have been heard issuing from the armory on Pierpont street at Irregular intervals lately people passing by have wondered at the It was only on Friday evenings cause. It was only on Friday evenings that the noises were heard. At first it was thought that a hand of raw recruits were being trained by Colonel Irons of the Tweatleth United States infantry, in prenaration for a sudden call to march to the Mexican border.

The mystery was solved last night by Sherlocke the Menk. Like many other mysteries, it was simple when the cause was known. It was only the Arab patrol of El Kalah temple of the order of the Mystle Shrine drilling for the imperial council at Los Angeles next May. The drills are held at the armora for the reasen that it is the emity building in the city large enough for the maneuvers of the awkward squad of thirty under the command of Captain Henry Simon.

TELEPHONE PIONEER SALT LAKE VISITOR

In the early 50's Mr. Annest was vice president and general superintendent of the Bell Telephone company in Salt Lake. In fact, he was one of the pioneer telephone men of the tetritory and state. As sarly as 1884 he introduced the idea of using the telephone in railroad train dispatching. At that time W. W. Riter was president of the Unit & Nevada railroad, which rain from this city to Stockton. Toosic county. S. F. Fenton was general freight and passenger agent of the little line, which was a narrow gauge that used to carry summer bathers to the old Garfield resort. To these railroed officials Annest presented his plan and they experimented with it for some time. However, the telephone was then a crisic affair as compared with the instrument and its ampuritenances of teday, but even at that it was found to be applicable to the bustness of Irain dispatching. Since then it has come into exitensive use for that purpose. In the early 50's Mr. Annett was vice
